

🎨 Join us for the inauguration of Cultural Policy Chaupal (Culture for Development) on February 23 at 11:30 am at Ramlal Anand College, University of Delhi, with Honourable Smt Meenakshi Lekhi, Union Minister of State for External Affairs and Culture.

This dialogue series, organized by the Indira Gandhi National Centre for the Arts in collaboration with Centre for Public Policy and Governance and Tohri Foundation, aims to explore the intersection of culture and development in shaping Viksit Bharat @2047. Join us for insightful discussions on how culture influences society, politics, sciences, theater, linguistic diversity, and art, envisioning a harmonious and progressive nation.

🌟 Objectives:

- Organize a series of dialogues to delve into the relationship between culture and development.
- Explore integrating cultural nuances into developmental policies for sustainable progress.
- Engage stakeholders in debates on cultural dimensions of various sectors in the India of 2047.
- Facilitate direct conversations between youth and experts to actively shape India's future.

Don't miss this opportunity to be part of envisioning a culturally rich and developed India!
